

“If sinners be damned, at least let them leap to Hell over our bodies. If they will perish, let them perish with our arms around their knees. Let no one go there unwarned and unprayed for.” Charles Spurgeon

I. We are motivated to pray for the lost when we truly believe the consequences of unbelief and have a burden for them .

A. Consequences of unbelief

B. A burden

II. A heart for the lost will manifest itself in prayer .

A. Pray passionately (Romans 9:1-3)

B. Pray continually (Romans 10:1)

C. Pray specifically (Romans 9-10)

Take away: How can I respond to this message?

- Make a list of lost people that you will commit to pray for.
- Get to “the heart of the problem” and talk to God about our own hearts. Let’s ask God to convict us, and change us, and give us His heart for the people He has put in our path, so that we would love them enough to pray for them; minister to them; and witness to them.