

From today's passage we are going to learn that we may have, or may be failing in some way. But it doesn't mean that we are failures. It means that we have a choice to make. We either remain in our failure and pay the consequences or, we can turn to Jesus in faith and experience the fullness he has for each of us.

Failure is Inevitable (21:1-6a)

Faith is God's Remedy for Failure (21:6b)

The Fruit of our Faith is Fullness (6c – 14)
