

Welcome Tyler Twombly and family!

Tyler graduated from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in 2016 with a Bachelor's in Pastoral Ministry, and is currently working on his Master's in Advanced Biblical Studies. He has worked in various positions at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, and held internships with the North American Mission Board, OnGoal Soccer Ministries and Imago Dei Church. Tyler, Brittany and their one-year-old son, Nolan, are moving to Huntsville from Wake Forest, NC.

Tyler will begin working with Tyler Holland in the Student Ministry at Whitesburg on January 20, 2020. His responsibilities will be to implement ministry strategies with students, and focus on building relationships and helping them love God and minister to the world around them.
